

LITERARY NOTES.

Mr. James Grant's new work, entitled "The Metropolitan Weekly and Provincial Press," and forming the third and concluding volume of his "History of the Newspaper Press," will be published immediately.

Nearly 30,000 copies of Mr. Tennyson's "Gareth and Lynette" were subscribed for, principally by London booksellers. The subscriptions for the second volume of Mrs. Fawcett's "Life of Dickens" amount to about 9,000 copies.

Mr. William Howitt will soon publish a translation of "The Religion of Rome, described by a Roman." The publication of the original in Rome has caused a great commotion in the ranks of the Italian priesthood, and its translation into English has been undertaken by Mr. Howitt, with the author's express permission.

The well-known correspondent, "Carleton" (C. C. Colton), has just completed a picturesque story of the Boston fire, which will be published in a few days by Shepard & May. Mr. John Billings has furnished several illustrations for the volume from drawings by himself on the night of the fire. The work will be issued in a low-priced, popular form.
